Theodore and Barbara Judd Scholarship

The Judds' love of theatre can be traced back to Barbara's upbringing in New Haven, CT. When they retired to Tallahassee, they brought this love along with their great generosity. The Judds joined the Theatre Patrons Association in 1995, went on to serve two terms as Co-Presidents, and began underwriting scholarships in 2006. Today, the awards honor Ted's memory and Barbara's continued service to the School of Theatre and Tallahassee community.

*Shane Howell
Macy Lanceta*

Howard W. Kessler Scholarship

Howard and his wife Anne Van Meter have supported the students in the School of Theatre since moving to Wakulla County in 1999. In addition to a great passion for animals and the environment, they enjoy witnessing and supporting the education and success of Theatre students through this endowment and their participation in the Theatre Patrons Association.

*Travis Brown
