MARCIA L. ROSAL FUND FOR ART THERAPY

Dr. Rosal is a Past-chairperson of the Art Education Department and Director of the Art Therapy Program at FSU. Dr. Rosal has over 35 years of art therapy practice, written extensively in art therapy journals, contributed chapters in several edited volumes, and most recently co-edited the Wiley Handbook of Art Therapy.

In honor of Dr. Rosal's tireless dedication to the university and field of art therapy and in celebration of her retirement, FSU Department of Art Education is establishing the Marcia Rosal Fund for Art Therapy.

The Marcia L. Rosal Fund for Art Therapy will serve to support students pursuing a degree in Art Therapy, including student research, conference presentation and attendance, professional association membership and merit-based awards.
