

March 3-4, 2023

CALL FOR PAPERS

Keynote Speaker: Heather Igloliorte

Associate Professor of Indigenous Art History and University Research Chair of Circumpolar Indigenous Art, Concordia University, Montreal

The Florida State University Art History faculty and graduate students invite students currently working toward an MA or a PhD to submit abstracts of papers for presentation at our 39th Annual Art History Graduate Student Symposium, which will be held on our main campus in Tallahassee, FL, March 3-4, 2023.

We welcome papers that represent an advanced stage of research from any area of the history of art, architecture, and cultural heritage studies. Paper sessions will take place on Friday afternoon and Saturday, with each paper followed by critical discussion. Papers will then be considered for inclusion in Athanor, our internationally distributed journal.

The deadline for submitting abstracts (maximum 250 words) is December 1, 2022. Please include your university affiliation and the title of the talk.

Send abstracts and this information to:
fsusymposium@gmail.com

For updates visit:
arthistory.fsu.edu/symposium

Graduate Student Symposium Committee
Department of Art History, Florida State University

